

Who can get social housing?

To be considered for social housing you must have a serious housing need and be able to show us that you have done everything you can to find somewhere to live.

To get social housing you must:

- be aged 16 years or over
- be ordinarily resident in New Zealand and
- be a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident in New Zealand. If you have been a permanent resident in New Zealand for less than two years you may qualify if you're getting a main benefit.

If you're not a New Zealand citizen or a permanent resident you may qualify if you're getting an emergency benefit under special circumstances (for example applying for residency and must stay in New Zealand)

- have income under:
 - $585.30 a week (after tax) for people who have no partner and no dependent children
 - $900.45 a week (after tax) for people who have a partner and/or dependent children
- have cash assets worth less than $42,700.

If you have a partner, their situation will be assessed as part of your application.

Emergency housing

If you have an emergency housing need, such as nowhere to stay tonight, please call us as we may be able to help and refer you to local services.

Don't qualify?

If you find you can't get social housing, we may still be able to help you with other housing options and some advice on how to go about finding somewhere to live.

Go to the MSD Housing website www.housing.msd.govt.nz, have a look at our Finding somewhere to live brochure or ask us about making an appointment for a Housing Options seminar.

If you think we can help you with social housing
